

2020 Annual Report

Operating Committee

Chair: Patricia Bromley

Secretary: Linda Ng

Treasurer: Jennifer Dawson

Ordinary Members: Anne Walsh (Tas), Elise Bischoff (QLD), Justine Parsons (NSW), Priya Govindaswamy (NSW)

Membership

The Education SIG has 501 members, a decrease of 1.09% from 2019

Meetings

The Education SIG has established 6-weekly meetings with alternate meetings open to all Education SIG members. Due to COVID pandemic, no in-person/ face-to-face meetings were held. The SIG Committee hopes to hold a meeting at the ACNN Conference 2021 in Canberra

Strategic Planning

The Committee members have reviewed and documented how SIG activities align with ACNN Strategic Plan 2021-2025. The Education SIG has reviewed its Terms of Reference and Position Statement of Neonatal Nursing Education as well as the Marketing Sheet

Research

The Education SIG has submitted 2 manuscripts for publication to Journal of Neonatal Nursing- both manuscripts were from the survey conducted on ACNN members in 2019. The findings from this survey were presented at the ACNN Virtual Conference in September 2020 and University of Tasmania School of Nursing Seminar Series in November 2020.

The Education SIG is planning on exploring future collaboration with NNP SIG, Leadership SIG and Research SIG

Virtual Seminar

The Education SIG has successfully organised a virtual seminar on an ethical case study. There were 90 members registered for the seminar however only 47 attended.

The Education SIG is planning on organising more Virtual seminars in 2021
