About us

The Vic Branch aim to support neonatal nurses and midwives and provide education and networking opportunities for all nurses across Victoria. A Branch for Victorian Members run by Victorians.

Membership

The Branch committee meets virtually every month to plan ongoing support and education for the year ahead. We aim to hold education sessions throughout the year both virtually and in person, as circumstances allow. All ACNN members residing in Victoria, are welcome to become members of the VIC Branch and are welcome to attend events as listed.

If you are interested in joining or have any questions, please contact us at vicbranch@acnn.org.au
