

Low Resource Setting Neonatal Nurse Scholarship

The purpose of the Low Resource Setting Neonatal Nurse Scholarship is to facilitate the professional learning and development of those nurses/midwives from low resource settings in South East Asia and Sovereign Oceania regions, who care for neonates.

Examples of educational opportunities this scholarship supports includes attendance at:

- Australian College of Neonatal Nurses National Conference (ACNN)
- Council of International Neonatal Nurses Conference (COINN)
- South Pacific Nurses Forum (SPNF)
- Neonatal focussed workshops in Australia (e.g. developmental care workshop)

Eligibility criteria

- A student or registered nurse/midwife involved in the care of newborns AND/OR
- A student or registered nurse/midwife involved in improving outcomes for mothers and newborns AND/OR
- A student or registered nurse/midwife who has partnered with the ACNN Low Resource Countries Special Interest Group in activities in their home country

Application process

Download the application form and return the completed form to the ACNN LRC SIG secretary at lrcsig@acnn.org.au

Scholarship conditions

- The scholarship will cover expenses associated with visa's, health check requirements, economy airfares, accommodation, conference/workshop fees and a per diem allowance to cover meals not provided during the conference/workshop.
- Special consideration will be given to applicant/s who are members of COINN
- Successful applicant/s may be invited to give a short presentation on their country and their work place
- Maximum funding for an individual applicant is $6000 AUD